

I would not like to see the NJ Do Not Call rules weakened. It is terribly annoying to rush to the phone only to find someone trying to sell me something. If I want to purchase goods or services, I know where they are and I will call them.